

AUSTRALIA

Australian cities

What are the most famous cities in Australia?

- Most cities are along the coast
- In the middle is a desert
- In the east are: Sydney, Melbourne, Brisbane and Canberra
- In the north is Darwin
- In the west is Perth

The Capital of Australia

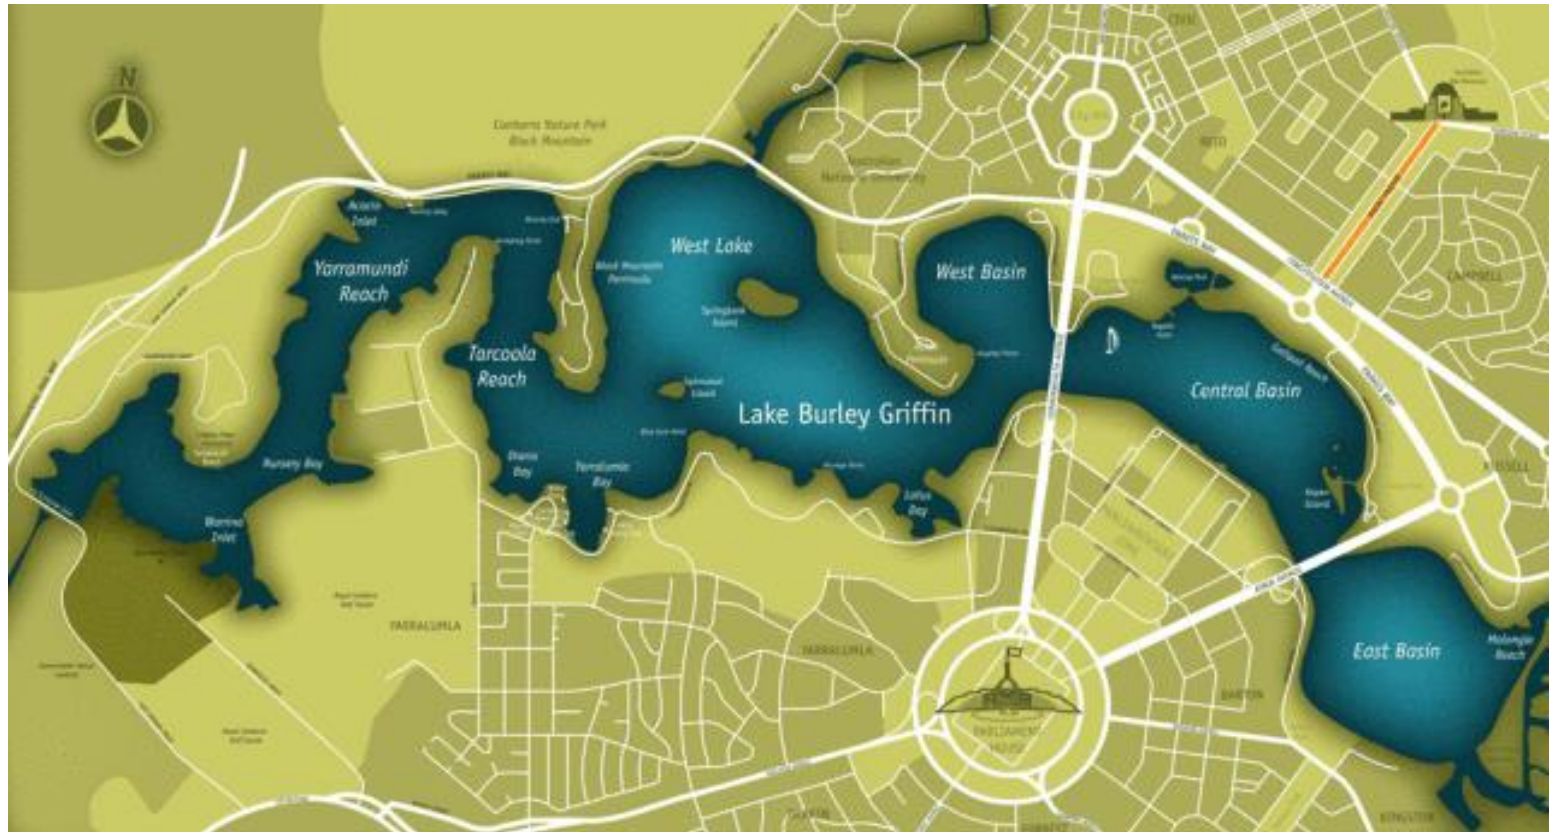

- The capital city is Canberra
- The city is planned and designed by American architect
- It's built in triangles and squares

- In the middle of the city there is a man-made lake – Lake Burley Griffin
- Water Jet – The Captain James Cook Memorial
- The water goes up to 150 m high
- Captain James Cook discovered Australian east coast

- It was chosen as a capital
- It is situated between two rivals Sydney and Melbourne

Sydney

- The oldest and largest city
- it's popular for warm climate and beach culture

Sydney Opera House

- The most famous building
- Was designed by Danish architect

Bondi Beach

- Very famous and popular beach
- Popular with surfers
- It's about 1 km long

Melbourne

- Australia's second largest city
- It's also a cultural capital because many musicians and comedians started there
- Sporting events: Australian Open (famous tennis tournament) Australian Gran Prix (Formula One)

- For more information go to Angličtina maturitní témata, edice MATURITA